Head Teacher: Miss J Harris

Audley Primary is a 4-form entry school based in the Stechford area of Birmingham, with a dedicated, hard-working team of staff who strive towards all pupils achieving the highest educational outcomes, regardless of their circumstance or background. Our vision is to create a safe, happy, and successful school in which everyone can flourish and grow.

We wish to appoint an enthusiastic and imaginative classroom teacher who has the passion and commitment to inspire, motivate and engage all our children in successful and exciting learning experiences. You will be able to work hard as a member of our friendly and well-motivated team, working tirelessly to provide an outstanding education to all our children.

As part of drb Ignite Multi Academy Trust, we can offer an extensive range of professional development involving all nine schools, support from within school but most of all the confidence and trust to develop your teaching skills without risk.

If you feel you have the expertise, commitment, and determination that our children require, please contact the school to arrange an informal visit. You will be very welcome, and we would be delighted to talk to you.
