Key Stage 1

Toys: past and present

You will start by discussing what toys are like today before investigating how we know toys are old. You will ask questions to find out what your parents and grandparents' toys were like. Finally, you will create your own toy museum where you will sequence toys in chronological order.

Local history

You will complete some fieldwork study in the local area around school to find out how it has changed and the reasons for this. You will also consider how some sections have remained the same.

The Great Fire of London

You will learn about the Great Fire of London and the effect it had on the people at the time. You will find out when, where, how and why the Great Fire happened and explore how we know about it through the diary of Samuel Pepys and other sources.
